The first 3 months of this year's meeting are behind us, leaving us with both very good and very sad memories. The season began on September 1st with a wonderful Chinese dinner provided by Brother David Goldstein of Parkside Chapels. Thank you David for the wonderful evening – the food was great. Then, on September 20th, we had our annual picnic at Cunningham Park. Although everyone there had a wonderful time, fewer people attended than had come to past picnics. At our October Executive Board Meeting, the Brothers discussed whether we should hold a picnic next year. It involves a lot of work from Itzy getting the permits, to Arie & Sid getting the food, to a number of Brothers doing the cooking. If you would like the Lodge to keep having an annual picnic, we need you to voice your opinion and to come join us in the park. Believe me, you won't go hungry.

At our first meeting in October, we heard Grand Chancellor Steven Kohn's message delivered by Deputy Grand Chancellor Lee Cushman, who, in spite of a case of bronchitis, did a wonderful job. We also had some visiting dignitaries, including Grand Vice Chancellor Sheldon Blitz, Grand Secretary Marc Bochner, PDSC Sir Kenneth Danker, PCDGC Sir Barry Wiener, ACDGC Jeff Drucker, as well as several visiting Brothers from the 3rd District. Of course, we concluded this wonderful evening with our customary poker game, which usually attracts 7 or 8 Brothers.

Our first three months of meetings was capped off by our annual Chicken Dinner and gift card raffle on Tuesday, November 17. The dinner was sponsored by two speakers from Morgan Stanley—Lee Korn and Joseph Filisia. Thank you, Sid Weber for bringing these men to the meeting and to Lee and Joe for providing us with such a good meal and such an informative talk. Also, congratulations to Ron, Abe & Arthur on winning the gift card raffles. In addition, we gave out the tickets for the evening at Governor's Comedy Club in December. We still have 4 tickets which will be given out at our December 1st meeting.

On a sad note, we at North Shore Lodge lost one of our own, PC Jerry Geier. Our deepest and most profound sympathy goes out to his lovely wife, Fran, as well as to the entire Geier family. He will be sorely missed by all of us. Thank you, Itzy for taking over as Financial Secretary.

As we begin the next part of this Pythian year, we look forward to our annual Holiday Party on December 15th. It's an open meeting, so I hope to see many of my Brothers, as well as their significant others. We will have great food, entertainment, and a fun-filled evening.

In closing, I would like to extend my wishes to all of our members and their families for a very happy, safe and healthy holiday season and the same for all of 2016. See you all soon.

Fraternally,

PACDGC Robert Banks

SO LONG FRIEND TO ALL

Jerome "Jerry" Geier exemplified Pythianism and was all that a Knight should be. He joined the Knights of Pythias 55 years ago to play ball and to have a good time. He did just that; but he also contributed greatly to Douglaston Lodge and later North Shore Lodge.

Jerry attended meetings regularly and served on many Committees. At different times he was Chairman of the Sports, the Collation and the Eyes for the Needy Committees. He donated thousands of eyeglasses for the needy. When a volunteer was needed, Jerry forgot about the sage advice given to all service people of "Don't volunteer." Instead, his hand shot up like a rocket.

Jerome "Jerry" Geier

For the past 15 years, Jerry held the office of Financial Secretary. He sent out dues notices as early as they could be dispatched, followed them up, when needed, with second notices, and kept accurate records. His reports of consistently dwindling numbers of delinquent Brothers were a pleasure to hear. Jerry attained the title of Past Chancellor and was a life member of the Lodge.

THE EDITOR SPEAKS

North Shore Lodge should be grateful to its Brothers. After all, no one gets paid for being a member. Yet, we continue to thrive and prosper. Over the years, plenty of hardworking men filled the chairs and were active on the Grand Lodge level. Danny Deckler, Jere Lifson, Izzy Friedman and Irv Kleiman immediately come to mind as prime examples. But just as important for our Lodge were the men who served in our Lodge alone, such as, Ike Roffman, Barney Linden, Ed Rasquin, Joe Bates, Barry Wheatman, Harold Saldinger, Azril Margulis and countless others. But perhaps, the most important Brothers of all are the ones who just come to meetings without any desire to rise in the Order. For example, Richard Matty, Elliott Frankel, Asher Rynski, and Jack Malkin attend most meetings. Where would we be without them? We would be floundering. And then, of course, we have the dues-paying Brothers who do not take advantage of what the Lodge has to offer. We need you, too. So, I say, thank you to all the members of North Shore Lodge, be you a sideline member or king of the hill, we need and appreciate all of you.

The Nostalgia Corner of this issue of the Knight Light reprints articles that were published 26 years ago. Sadly, Harold Saldinger and Ike Roffman are no longer here. Those of us who remember them can enjoy good memories. We also have another poem by the late PC Jesse Levine in this issue. It seems that we may have more deceased than live contributors to the Knight Light.

THIRD DISTRICT DINNER

We still have plenty of time, but it's never too early to plan ahead. On Monday, May 18, 2016, the newly created Third District will hold its first dinner in honor of Deputy Grand Chancellor Lee Cushman. It will be held at the East Meadow Jewish Center, which, surprisingly enough, is located in East Meadow, New York, at 1400 Prospect Avenue. You only have to attend one dinner with your Lodge Brothers to know how much fun you're going to have (a lot). The price for Lodge Brothers has not yet been determined. However, you can be sure that the subsidy would make it a worthwhile experience, even without the wonderful camaraderie of your Brothers. The price will be in the next Bulletin. Meanwhile, please just BE THERE!!!

THE FALL MEETINGS

Because of the way the Jewish Holidays fell, we only had one meeting in September. We also had two meetings each in October and November. We began with a free Chinese food dinner on September 1st, courtesy of PACDGC David Goldstein of Parkside Chapels, and ended with a free chicken dinner with Italian pastries for desert on November 17th, courtesy of Morgan Stanley. In between, we had three meetings with great cake and coffee. Thank you, Arie and Sidney for the good jobs you did in getting the food.

We held our annual turkey raffle (no more birds and feathers, just Stop and Shop gift cards). The winners were Richard Matty, Arthur Getzel and Ron Degen. That evening, Lee Korn and Joseph Filosia of Morgan Stanley gave a talk on wealth management. Even if you are poor, it would have been interesting.

The meetings were not very long, but a number of us stayed until at least 10:30, playing cards. Words alone cannot describe the simple good times that evolve from meeting with Lodge Brothers, having some desert, and enjoying the banter and action of playing poker with friends. You had to

Most important of all, Jerry was a devoted husband, father, grandfather and friend. He was proud of his family and their accomplishments, but did not brag about them. He simply enjoyed them. Several years ago, he celebrated his birthday by taking a cruise with his entire family. That was the way Jerry wanted to spend his life—surrounded by the people whom he loved and who loved him.

Jerry and Fran were virtually childhood sweethearts. They would have celebrated 55 years of marriage on October 22nd of this year, less than a month before Jerry would have turned 75 on November 19th.

Although Jerry suffered from Parkinson's disease over the past few years and was in and out of the hospital for various maladies, his spirit never waned and his attitude toward life never wavered. He remained upbeat, friendly, and uncomplaining.

North Shore Lodge joins Jerry's wife Fran, Jerry's son Randy and his wife Janet, Jerry's daughter Jodi and her husband Scott, and Jerry's grandchildren in mourning the loss of a wonderful man and wishes them comfort in the great memories that Jerry left behind.

A NEW FINANCIAL SECRETARY

The Financial Secretary works hard and has a lot of responsibilities, that is, if he does his job well. Fortunately, PC LM Jerry Geier did a wonderful job. Now, we are very lucky that PC Itzy Sirota has agreed to step into Jerry's shoes. Dues notices have already gone out, so it is apparent that Itzy is continuing Jerry's fine work. Thank you, Itzy, for taking over the job and performing it so well.

TWELFTH ANNUAL NORTH SHORE LODGE PICNIC

For some inexplicable reason, the 11th Annual North Shore Lodge Picnic was not as well attended as its ten predecessors. The food, the company and the weather showed up in good form. Yet, in spite of the large number of children and grandchildren that our Brothers have, only three people 13 years old or under joined us. It was a fun event missed by too many. I am planning to attend the 12th Annual North Shore Lodge Picnic on Sunday, September 11, 2016. I hope that many of our readers will be there with me. I cannot guarantee much in life, but I can state that you will have a great time. Please mark your calendars, accordingly, and

BE THERE!!!

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY TO THE PISKOS

We received a communication from Robert Emanuel Pisko that he and his wife Carla celebrated their 49th wedding anniversary on November 20th. Congratulations! Please remind us next year to mention the big 50. Meanwhile have a great year of marriage

TAX EXEMPTIONS AND DEDUCTIONS FOR PARENTS

By PC Barry Lisak, IRS Enrolled Agent

All parents are familiar with the high cost of raising children. But did you know that your children may help you to qualify for some income-tax benefits? Here are some tax benefits the IRS wants parents to consider when filing tax returns this year.

1. Dependents. In most cases, a child can be claimed as a dependent in the year they were born. For 2015, each dependent child reduces $4,000 from your taxable income, thereby increasing possible income-tax refunds.

2. Child Tax Credit. You may be able to take this credit on your tax return for each of your children under age 17. Each credit is worth $1,000 per child. Married couples filing jointly must have income below $150,000 to receive all or part of this credit.

3. Child and Dependent Care Credit. You may be able to claim the credit if you pay someone to care for your child under 13 so that you can work or look for work. The credit is based on up to $3,000 of eligible expenses to care for one child under the age of 13, or up to $6,000 for two or more kids.

4. Earned Income Tax Credit. The EITC is a benefit for certain people who work and have earned income from wages or self-employment. EITC reduces the amount of tax you owe and may also give you a refund. Married couples filing jointly, with three or more qualifying children and income below $53,267, may receive up to $6,242 in the earned-income credit.

5. Adoption Credit. You may be able to take a tax credit for qualifying expenses paid to adopt an eligible child. Taxpayers claiming the adoption credit must file a paper return because adoption-related documentation must be included. For 2015, the maximum adoption credit is $13,400 per child. Taxpayers with modified adjusted gross income below $241,010 will be entitled to all or part of this credit.

6. Child with Earned Income. If your child has earned income from working he may be required to file a tax return. If a child's earned income is less than $6,200, no Federal tax-filing is necessary, unless Federal income tax was withheld.

7. Children with Investment Income. Children pay their own low tax rate on investment income below $2,100. When a child's investment income exceeds $2,100, it will be taxed at the parent's higher rate.

8. Higher Education Credits. Education tax credits can help parents to offset the costs of college. The American Opportunity Tax Credit and the Lifetime Learning Credit are education credits that reduce your Federal income tax dollar-for-dollar, unlike a deduction, which reduces taxable income. You may be eligible for a credit up to $2,500.

9. Student-loan interest. You may be able to deduct interest you pay on a qualified student loan. The deduction is claimed as an adjustment to income so you do not need to itemize your deductions. The maximum deduction is $2,500 for student-loan interest.

10. Self-employed health-insurance deduction. If you were self-employed and paid for health insurance, you may be able to deduct any premiums you paid for coverage for any child under 27 at the end of 2015.

After paying expenses for your child all year, be sure to claim all the tax deductions and credits to which you are entitled.

HOLIDAY PARTY

It's that time of the year again, time for partying, eating, dancing, spending time with friends. We're doing our best to make it happen. We just need you to join us at 7:30 on Tuesday evening, December 15th, for our annual Holiday Party. If you're going to be at Disneyland, or skiing in the Alps, or attending a papal audience in the Vatican, you surely will be busy. But for the rest of you, nothing better will be going on that evening. So come on down and find out what a real good time is all about.

BE THERE!!!

A CHICKEN DINNER ONLY A CHICKEN COULDN'T LOVE

Sidney Weber went to North Shore Farms to pick up the food for our Annual Fall Dinner Meeting and he did a great job. The chickens were succulent and plentiful. The dessert was delicious and waistlines went bulging. As noted above, the dinner was provided by Morgan Stanley, whose two speakers educated us after the feast. Thank you Lee Korn and Joe Filosia for satisfying our hunger for nourishment and knowledge. The turkeys also thank you Sidney, but the chickens are protesting.

BUDGET AND PLANNING MEETING

On August 11, 2015, the Lodge held its annual Budget and Planning Meeting. Our Treasurer PDGC Tony Rivers distributed a chart of last year's budget and actual spending and led us through this year's budget. The budget looks good and we are moving forward. We also tentatively planned our meetings for the next year. Since nothing is written in stone, you can still give us your input, should you have some special ideas in mind.

HAPPY NEW YEAR!!!

The Lodge is not planning to hold a party to welcome in the New Year. That does not mean that the Brothers do not want to go to one. So if you are having a party or going to a good one, please come down to our next meeting and give out invitations. Thank you.

NEW CASTLE HALL

The Castle Hall at the Harvest Mission Center, 54-47 Little Neck Parkway is located between Temple Torah and a Gulf gas station. If you're going north on Little Neck Parkway, just pass the Long Island Expressway and make a right turn right after the Gulf Station, which is one block after the Expressway. There's plenty of parking.

ONE OF OUR LATE PC JESSE LEVINE'S POEMS

MACHINES

By Jesse Levine

Machines and I just don't agree,
From where I sit we can't see eye to eye.
I've done my best, almost blind,
All I get is a kick in my behind.

Why are they mean and rotten to me?
Really like them, is it hard to be, nice?
Please machines, be gentle and kind work with me,
Help me find my way through this maze I seem to create,
So that when I start, we can alleviate all my problems,
Then I can feel at home.

NOSTALGIA CORNER

In the January 1989 issue of the Knight Light, the following articles appeared.

CHANCELLOR COMMANDER'S MESSAGE

Hello Yankees,

The past three weeks here in Ft. Lauderdale West have been disasters. Eighty, eighty five every day of November is too hard to comprehend. By the time this is printed I'll be back home to a normal November-December that I'm used to. Just can't wait to get back to real weather!*

I know that in my absence my V.C. and Oivey have chartered a true course towards an excellent dinner. Hopefully it was a huge success and everyone present gained a few pounds. Perhaps a dinner a month may deplete the treasury, but it may also, get out a few recluses! A good thought for the future.

Your second meeting should have been a success for DGC Bob Fields of our brother lodge. Hope that you made it his day on his homecoming. At least he couldn't complain about a CC not opening a meeting properly and with decorum. Oh well we all can't be blessed with using the King's English in good taste.

I am looking forward to my return for our first meeting in December. My experiences, so far, as titular head of your lodge, have been delightful. May it continue to the end of my tenure.

Please show up, in person, if you are not satisfied with our methods, and give us some valuable advice on how we can make this lodge more successful.

See you mates.

Fraternally,

HAROLD SALDINGER

(Harold was known for his salty language. He usually entered the Castle Hall yelling "Hello," followed by a 10-letter expletive. He was a wonderful, fun-loving Lodge Brother).

It Seems To Me

by Senator Ike Roffman

At our November "dinner meeting" we had more than double the attendance we usually have at our regular meetings. It seemed to me that there was a valuable lesson to be learned. But what was the reason for this dramatic increase? It couldn't be entirely the food. After all we have a good collation at our regular meetings. Besides, the Brothers who attended appeared to be pretty well-fed to start with. I racked my brains (no small feat) trying to figure out what we have at our "dinner meetings" that we don't have at our regular meetings.

Although it was only 9 PM, suddenly it dawned on me: It's not what we have at our "dinner meetings". It's what we don't have! And what don't we have? We don't have--no not "dames", you're thinking of a song from "South Pacific"--we don't have any business transacted! The Brothers just eat, drink (coffee, soda) and socialize without first having to listen to what many consider boring speeches, routine motions and messages from Grand Lodge publicizing events that are of little or no interest to them.

I am well aware that we are a Pythian Lodge and must conduct regular meetings. Besides we couldn't afford the expense of "dinner meetings" twice a month. However, it seems to me that we could get most of the Brothers who attend our "dinner meetings" to come to our regular meetings if we do as follows:

(a) We publicize our regular meetings as "supper meetings". In addition to our usual collation of coffee and cake, we would add soda, bagels and cream cheese. That should satisfy the Brothers. After all a "supper" is not expected to be as lavish as a "dinner".

(b) We start the "supper meetings" the same time we start the "dinner meetings", at 7:30 PM. The Brothers could eat, drink and socialize until 9 PM, at which time we will announce the opening of the regular meeting. A few of the Brothers may leave but the vast majority would remain: those who attend regular meetings anyway and others who are "too full" to move.

THE EDITOR SPEAKS

No, you didn't miss the December Bulletin. We saved you money and the time it takes to read it by not publishing one. Because the November Knight Light got to the printer late and then he had a personal problem, that issue did not reach you until the end of that month. Accordingly, the great leaders and minds of this Lodge decided to combine December's and January's news in this issue. The message of our Chancellor Commander was intended for publication before the December meetings. Since Hal was his usually witty and entertaining self, I decided to include it anyway.

Elsewhere in this Bulletin, Senator Ike Roffman writes that perhaps the "boring speeches, routine motions and messages from Grand Lodge publicizing events that are of little or no interest to them" keep the Brothers away from our regular meetings. Ike, of course, often writes tongue-in-cheek, but always with at least some truth in what he says. However, I am sure he was not referring to any meeting being conducted by our present Chancellor Commander. Great Neck Lodge's announcements may be less than exhilarating to us, but nobody opens a meeting better than Hal. You have to be there to appreciate his great mixture of "decorum" and humor.

One of the ways you can help the Knights of Pythias is by participating in the credit card program. Besides getting a credit card without a service charge for one year, liability and collision insurance on vehicles rented with the card, and a handsomely embossed card with the Knights of Pythias name and insignia on it, every time you use it you will be earning money for us. Whether or not you pay your bills immediately or in installments, Grand Lodge gets a percentage of the amount of purchases credited on these cards. Why not do yourself and the Knights a favor and sign up for a card? You can call Grand Lodge and do it by telephone or contact me and I'll arrange to have an application sent to you.

* * *

Perhaps the most interesting news for the Brothers is to find out who is doing and celebrating what events. Unfortunately, my mail box has not received any news as of late from you. Please let me know about birthdays, anniversaries, weddings, and any other changes in your lives so that I can pass the information on to the Lodge. Do we still have some Brothers living in Florida?

* * *

Hope 1988 was a good year for you and that 1989 will be even better.

Fraternally,

PC RONNIE DEGEN

To My Brothers:

At first I was miffed when I didn't receive a December bulletin. I thought that some censor was trying to get back at me. When I contacted the Editor and learned that no bulletin was being published for that month, I rejoiced. What a savings! All those wasted words unsaid and those printing and postage costs not incurred. I was the most happy fella. Actually, I have already given a great suggestion to the Editor in my correspondence to him, but my private advice always seems to go unheeded and unpublished in his column. Let's face it, no one is interested in what is in the Knight Light, except for my letters. My idea is that every other month, instead of sending out our normal Bulletin, we mail postcards with my letters printed on the back. That way you'll get what you really want and the Lodge will save money. Please write to your Editor and tell him that you support my idea.

I heard a rumor that some brothers thought that my last letter was unfair to our Chancellor. I was flattered, though not surprised, that my writing is actually read. I was also stunned that some people take me seriously. Now that I have your attention, vote Harold out. Vote Ira in! Unfortunately for poor Harold, it won't happen. He'll probably be Chancellor for a decade.

With the coming of the new year, I suggest that we should all say:
Resolved that I shall attend one more meeting in 1989 than I did in 1988,

Entreat at least one non-Pythian to come to an open meeting and join our ranks,

Support Pythian charities by giving $5 more than I did last year,

Offer a ride to a meeting to a Brother who has difficulty getting around nowadays,

Let Ira know how much I appreciate his wit and charm (money is always nice),

Vote for Ira for Chancellor Commander at the next election,

Enjoy the camaraderie and benefits of being a Pythian,

Deliver my 1989 dues check to the Financial Secretary early in the year so he doesn't spend time and energy sending out second notices.

Fraternally,

IRA S. LUGENER

IRA S. LUGENER

To My Brothers,

Grouch Marx is well known for his many humorous and tongue-in-cheek quips. One of them is "I don't want to belong to any club that will accept me as a member." After the laughter dies down, we should carefully think what that means. It's simple: people want to be part of exclusive organizations. Clubs that keep out Jews or blacks or women (except for the Knights of Pythias and men's rooms) are rightfully shunned; but groups that have legitimate requirements, such as, academic institutions that require high marks in school and baseball teams that seek ballplayers with high batting averages, are widely accepted. That's the answer to our quest for new members. No, I do not mean recruiting men with high IQs and athletic prowess. I'm talking about making it seem that being a Knight is an honor not attainable by all. (Of course, in reality, we will continue to accept anyone who breathes and has the first year's dues and initiation fee.)

We could plaster the sides of buses with big ads stating, "Do you have what it takes to join us? Barack Obama, Donald Trump, Brad Pitt, Tom Hanks and Mickey Mouse are not members. Would you want to belong?" Then, the following month, we could replace the ads with new ones saying, "If you think that you're good enough and you're a male between the ages of 18 and death, give us a call at 1-800-MYSTERY!" They'll be breaking down the doors to join us. Then we rent out Madison Square Garden, have a giant 18,000-man three-in-one rank, and we're home free. Oh, Ira, you are so brilliant!

Fraternally and Sincerely,

Ira S. Lugener

HAPPY BIRTHDAY SIDNEY

Everyone gets one birthday each year, but not many of us get as many as Sidney. We are so happy to congratulate PC Sidney Weber on having reached a milestone. No longer an octogenarian, he has evolved into a nonagenarian. On November 23, 2019, Sidney celebrated his 90th birthday. Wow! The Brothers who play cards know that Sidney has not lost a step, nor has he lost too many hands of poker. Here's proof that 90 is the new 60
